DAY 01: DELHI

Arrival at Delhi. You will be greeted and assisted at the Airport by GITC representative and transferred to the hotel. Sprawling on the banks of the river Yamuna, Delhi, the capital of India, personifies the soul of the country. The city conceals within its bosom, the remains of the civilizations that flourished over the last three thousand years. From time immemorial, several dynasties have flourished on its regal soil. The legacy of that past continues to exist in the many monuments left behind by the regents, each a chronicle of the glory of its time and an imprint of the character of the ruler. Check in at hotel for 02 nights. Spend the rest of the day at leisure.

DAY 02: DELHI

After breakfast, proceed for sightseeing tour of Old Delhi. Visit Jama Masjid, the largest mosque in India; Red Fort, one of the best surviving Mughal monuments, both built by Emperor Shah Jehan in 17th century; Raj Ghat – the monuments raised in memory of Mahatma Gandhi - the father of the nation and other great leaders of modern India.

Afternoon visit Jantar Mantar – an 18th century masonry observatory, Lakshmi Narayan Temple which epitomizes modern Indian temple architecture, Qutab Minar – one of the earliest remains of imperial Delhi built in 13th century; Humayun's Tomb & Craft Museum; drive past India Gate & Parliament House.

DAY 03: DELHI – AGRA

[203 kms / 4 ½ hrs]

Breakfast. Check out and drive to Agra. This sprawling industrial city is synonymous with the Taj Mahal, India's most famous monument. The Mughal emperor Babur established his capital here in 1526 and in the next century Agra witnesses a remarkable spate of architectural activity as each emperor tried to outdo the splendid monuments built by his predecessors. Check in at hotel for 01 night. Later, proceed for sightseeing tour of Agra covering tomb of Itimad-ud-Daula also known as 'Baby Taj'; Agra Fort & the Taj Mahal. Built by Emperor Shah Jahan commemorating his wife, Mumtaz, Taj Mahal is one of the finest examples of Indo-Saracenic Architecture. It took 22 years for its construction and is one among the Seven Wonders of the World. (Taj Mahal is closed on Fridays)

DAY 04: AGRA-FATEHPUR SIKRI – JAIPUR

[235 kms / 6 hrs]

Breakfast. Check out and proceed to Jaipur. En route visit the fairy tale city of Fatehpur Sikri, which was once the capital of Mughal Empire for a short-term between 1571 and 1585, during the reign of Emperor Akbar. Visit the magnificent world heritage buildings belonging to the Mughals. Continue your journey to Jaipur. Check in at hotel for 02 nights.

DAY 05: JAIPUR

Popularly known as the Pink City,

Jaipur was built in 1727 AD by Maharaja Jai Singh. Designed in accordance with Shilpa Shastra – an ancient Hindu treatise on architecture, Jaipur follows a grid system. After breakfast, proceed for a half-day excursion to Amber Fort beginning with a short elephant ride to the fort. Afternoon, proceed for a city tour covering the City Palace, Hawa Mahal & Jantar Mantar - the astronomical observatory built by the Maharaja. The City Palace in the heart of the old city is a blend of Rajasthani and Mughal architecture. Hawa Mahal, a five storied structure of pink sandstone with overhanging latticed balconies is unique in conception and is designed to catch the cool breeze on a hot summer day.
